Farewell Party Report , 2014

By Mr. Yang Anhao

Introduction

September is a special month, as the arrival of new comers, someone in our laboratory of Landscape Ecology, IDEC, Hiroshima University will graduate, so we held a farewell party for graduating students. And also for Mabuhay sensei. This time we have two students are going to graduate, one is Hamiudin, he came from Indonesia, he is very kind and a quiet person. Another one is Pheakdey, he came from Cambodia, he is friendly to everyone in the lab. Mabuhay sensei is a important guest who was invited to our lab, to give lectures, seminars and help to improve English in the last 3 months.

Date: Sep.23 17:00-19:00

Venue: Raffine Mansion Room 404

Participant: Nakagoshi sensei, TRAN Dang Xuan sensei, Naomi sensei, Mabuhay sensei and her family members, Students of NX lab.

The party flow

Here we are thankful Naomi sensei, Mabuhay sensei and her family members and Beni to prepare such a tasty food for the party.

The start of the party at 5:30 p.m. First of all, as graduates, Hamiudin and Pheakdey deliver a speech in turn. They appreciated the help and support from professors in the study and living. For Mabuhay sensei, she also felt very lucky and happy to meet the lab members, and thanks for the inviting from Pro.Nakagoshi, even though only three months.

And then Nakagoshi sensei and TRAN Dang Xuan sensei represented all the members to extend congratulations to Hamiudin and Pheakdey, also gave useful advices for all students, and thanks Mabuhay sensei came to our Lab, gave helps especially in English study.

Then graduate students give presents to Nakagoshi sensei, TRAN Dang Xuan sensei, and also we give the present to Mabuhay sensei, thanks for coming to our lab.

After that, we sat on the floor, we enjoyed foods and spoke to each other, a very natural-looking, atmosphere is excellent.

Good time always feel so quickly, at the end of the party, we had these photographs as treasured souvenir.

Results

Hamiudin and Pheakdey have graduated, and they will be return at the end of the month, but graduation is not only an end to a period, also a commencement of a new period, all the members of NX lab give the best wishes, we are hopeful and confident that whatever you dream for, whatever you hope to achieve may come true with your effort in the future. All the students appreciate Mabuhay sensei, thank for teaching us English, correcting our pronunciation, and prepare for TOEIC exam. May you and your family have health, happiness and outstanding success in all your ventures.
