

About the lab member– 2014

<http://www.landscape.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/>

Hiroshima
University

Regional Planning
Jambi Province

Dr. Rachmad Firdaus is a new Assistant Professor in the Landscape Ecology Laboratory of the Department of Development Technology at the Graduate School for International Development and Cooperation (IDEC), Hiroshima University. He earned his PhD in Landscape Ecology from the same institution in March 2014. He obtained an MS degree in Regional Planning from Bandung Institute of Technology in September 2005 and his Bachelor of Science (BS) in Forest Management in August 2002 from Gadjah Mada University in Indonesia. He is also affiliated with the Regional Development Planning Board in Jambi Province, Indonesia, where he is currently an Environmental and Spatial Planner. His research interests focus on land use change, land use planning and sustainability of tropical watersheds. In November 2013, he obtained the best poster award at the Global Leaders Program (NU-GELP) held in Nagoya University, Japan. He will work in IDEC until the end of March 2015.

Go back to Nakagoshi & Xuan & Ishihara Lab homepage