

Welcome Party for Professor Robert H.G Jongman

Reported by Ida (Jan.5th, 2014)

On January 5th, 2014, our Professor, Dr. Nakagoshi Nobukazu and his wife, Naomi Nakagoshi, organized a welcome party in honor of Prof. Robert H.G.Jongman, a visiting professor from the Wageningen University, the Netherlands. The event, which took place at Hiroshima International Plaza, was attended by the international students under the academic supervision of Dr. Nakagoshi.

Professor Jongman is a renowned professor in landscape ecology, with long hands-on professional experience in research and teaching in the area of river ecology, nature conservation planning, biodiversity monitoring, project management and program development. He graduated from Wageningen University in 1993 and had previously obtained his MSC at Radboud University in 1974 . He is currently serving as the head of the European Ecological Networks team on biodiversity and policy design.

Dr. Nakagoshi gave us information about Dr. Jongman at the start of the party. The lab students then introduced themselves to Dr. Jongman. Dr. Jongman asked them some questions regarding respective research fields.

After having lunch together, Dr. Nakagoshi gave a calendar to each attendee. The group concluded the gathering with photos session in front of the HIP building.
